RUMORS OF PLOTS AND COUN-TERPLOTS.

CHICAGO, June 22.—As early as 7 o'clock this morning caucuses were already in progress in the Wisconsin, Ohio, Maine, and other rooms.

The air was filled with rumors of combinations and dickering, plots and counterplots.

The Blaine undercurrent seemed to be as strong as ever, and the fact that Walker Blaine was closeted with the Maine delegation until a late hour last night and again early this morning was commented on as having more than ordinary significance.

There was a confident feeling in the Sherman camp, and more than yesterday's confidence among the Greshamites. But the managers generally seemed to have adopted a conservative policy.

There was little delay on the part of delegates in getting toward the auditorium, and by 9:30 fully one-half of them were in their seats.

Chairman Estee was in his seat fifteen minutes before the hour set for the reassembling, and Harry Smith, the journalist of the National House of Representatives, who, in consequence of his knowledge of parliamentary law, has been acting as adviser to the Chair, came in a few minutes later.

With him was Carson Lake, who has kept himself on the left of the chair since Wednesday, and looked to it that the Blaine element got all the recognition it wanted.

Leonard Sweet was welcomed with the first burst of applause of the day, and Major McKinley received the second.
Many eyes were directed to where Miss Sherman had taken a seat.

Had not the handsome features of Mrs.
Logan been so obscured by a heavy veil of crepe, that very few guessed her identity, she would undoubtedly have received as hearty a recognition as was accorded the memory of her gallant husband.

There was an alternate in the seat of Chauncey Depew, and Governor Foraker darted here and there over the floor, stopping to confer for a moment with the chairmen of different delegations.

The attendance was larger than at any previous session, and Colonel Ingersoll, who has missed few such gatherings for a score of years, remarked, as he surveyed the scene from the stage, that it was a sight that would fasten itself upon his memory to his dying day.

The convention was called to order at 11:00.

Not a score of the sixteen hundred and more delegates and alternates were out of their seats.

There are 832 delegates; necessary to a choice, 417.

NIGHT SESSION.

CHICAGO, June 22.—The band played patriotic airs as the audience assembled tonight. A cool breeze has been blowing all day making the heat endurable.

DEPEW WITHDRAWS.

At 7:12 Chairman Estee called the meeting to order, and the moment quiet reigned Chauncey M. Depew ascended the platform amid intense excitement and uproarious applause, which the New York delegation led. The moment he commenced to speak silence fell, and one could hear a pin drop as he withdrew his name and candidacy. He spoke with great earnestness, and concluded amid great applause.

Mr. Wise of Virginia rose and announced that Virginia delegates had agreed upon John S. Wise as their chairman. [Applause.]

MOTION TO ADJOURN.

Hastings of Pennsylvania moved for adjournment till 10 a.m. to-morrow.
Galleries hissed disapproval. Hastings said his reason was for the best interests of the party and harmony. The chairman of the Iowa delegation seconded the motion to adjourn. The motion was lost on a visa voce vote amid great excitement. The roll-call of States was called for on the motion, and Chairman Estee ordered it taken. California was closely watched, as her vote meant a Blaine adjournment. At the end of roll-call the vote stood, 535 to adjourn; 283 against.
Adjourned.

Immediately after the adjournment vote had been definitely ascertained, Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll was called for, and ascended the platform to address the convention on the subject of "protection." He got along swimmingly until he incidentally pronounced himself in favor of Gresham's nomination. Then

A TERRIFIC TUMULT.
The clamor lasted ten minutes, the house shouting and cheering, during which the solid Ohio, Massachusetts, and New York delegations entered their protest by getting up and walking out amid intense excitement.
Expressions of indignation against Ingersoll and against the retiring delegates action were equally heard on all sides.
The audience was for Gresham, however, and

HOWLED THEMSELVES HOARSE, and the band, striking up a vigorous air to quell the uproar, only added to it. In the midst of the uproar, Governor Foraker was called for, Ingersoll having retired, and, as though on a signal, California showed its white banner with "Blaine and Protection" on it, conspicuously in notice. There was a howl of applause from the house, but when a man in the gallery, as a counter demonstration, leaned over the railing and showed a white feather.

PAWNEERED REIGNED.
Everybody was upon chairs whooping and screaming and only at 8:15 did the Chairman restore order. The howls of approval and disapproval had lasted ten minutes.

The convention, which was really adjourned on the carrying of the motion even an hour ago, after the unfortunate Ingersoll episode refused to remain quiet.
They were still for a time by the eloquent recital of

SHERIDAN'S RIDE
by Charles Pope of St. Louis, an actor, and then Fitch, the California orator, began an address on Republicanism, but the confusion was so great, people leaving the hall in numbers, that he could not proceed, and at 8:35 the Chairman, Howell of Arkansas, who had succeeded Estee, requested the audience to disperse, which they did.

BLAINE MOODY AND TACTICIAN.
LONDON, June 22.—Mr. Carnegie and his distinguished guests arrived at Melrose and visited Abbotsford. A reporter who approached Mr. Blaine found him moody and taciturn. Mr. Blaine received many dispatches during the day, but their contents were not divulged. It is certain that Mr. Carnegie, whatever his own opinions and predictions may be, is not authorized to speak in behalf of Mr. Blaine. The party go to Edinburgh, where they will arrive to-morrow and remain until Monday morning.

THE PICKETT MONUMENT.

Meeting of the Division Committee last night.

The committee of the Pickett Association, having in charge the proposed monument to General Pickett in Hollywood, held a meeting last night at the Armory.
There were present Captain L. P. Reeve, chairman; C. T. Leehr, secretary; Comrades Tallaferra, Jennings, Boone, Norvell, and Dean.

The committee reported progress, and the evening was spent in discussing the best plan to adopt to obtain funds necessary to proceed with the work. The monument committee was not ready to report the estimates, etc., of the cost of the proposed monument, but would probably do so in a few days.

The amount of money now in bank is $438. A good deal has been subscribed which has not yet been sent in. It is believed that it will require from $1,700 to $2,000 to complete the work throughout.

CITY CIRCUIT COURT.

In the City Circuit Court yesterday the following business was transacted: Goddard & Moses against Vial. Action of debt. Jury waived by consent, and verdict and judgment by court for $200 and costs.

The sheriff was directed by the court to summon a jury for the trial of the suit of Casey against the City of Richmond.

In the suit of Daniel O'Donnell against the City of Richmond, for damages laid at $5,000, the jury could not agree, and were adjourned over until this morning.

LOCAL NOTES.

The earnings of the Richmond & Petersburg Railroad Company for May, 1888, were $21,893.82; expenses, $15,- 105.29; and the earnings of the Petersburg Railroad Company for the same month $34,576.42; expenses, $24,722.57.

Cards are out for the marriage of Hubert T. Ezekiel and Rachael, the daughter of Mr. William Elegenberger, which will take place at Temple "Beth Ababa," Eleventh street, near Marshall, Tuesday evening, July 3d, at 8 o'clock.

Yesterday morning Police Justice Richardson turned over to Mr. E. Clayton, sheriff of Warwick county, Mr. E. B.
Anderson, who was charged with shooting John Todd with intent to kill, at Newport News, last Wednesday night.
The sheriff and his prisoner went to Newport News yesterday morning.

The only case before the Police Court yesterday was that of an unfortunate individual who, having lunched too freely to suit the temperature of the atmosphere, found it impossible to take care of himself, and one of the police had to do so for him. He contributed $2.50 to the city's treasury.

The contract for the iron work on the Main street extension of the Customhouse, such as the beams and stairways necessary, has been awarded to Messrs. Asa Snyder & Co.

One ordinance violation was disposed of yesterday by Justice Richardson, it being the case of a colored man having an unlicensed dog. He paid $1 fine and then spent another $1 for a medal.

The members of the Board of Fire Commissioners who go into office July 1st, desire to hold a private conference, but will not do so until the return of Mr.
John S. Harwood, who is absent on a business trip.

tor, Rev. R. C. Cave. No services at night. Sunday school at 9:15 a.m.

THE RICHMOND LOCOMOTIVE AND MACHINE WORKS.

Given a Big Contract for Electric Cars.
Superintendent Burt of the electric road, and Lieutenant Greene of the Sprague Motor Company, some weeks ago visited the shops of the Richmond Locomotive and Machine Works, and made such favorable reports of their equipment and capacity as to lead to a contract being given by Messrs. Thornton N.
Mottley & Co. of New York, to the locomotive works for fifty electric cars to be these cars go to Connellsville, Ohio, and it is thought the others will be used on the City Railway here.

Messrs. Flynn and Motley say that their warrants will be not less than 250 cars per annum and possibly more. Mr. J.
J. Montague, Vice-President of the Richmond Locomotive and Machine works, was seen and asserts his ability to turn out the cars in as good shape as those made by Northern builders, and hopes to make the first delivery at an early date. We would have at least one of these Richmond built cars at the Exposition.

THE EXPOSITION.

The Director-General Says They Are as Busy as Bees.

"What is the latest regarding the Exposition?" was the question plumped at Dr. Henry C. Jones, Director General of the proposed Exposition, yesterday.

"We are all as busy as bees working at it," was the reply, "and every day applications for space are being received.
To-day one came from New York, and one from Philadelphia, and we are constantly getting similar communications away from here. This shows that the Exposition is attracting attention throughout the country."

"It promises then to be a great success?"

"Every indication points in that direction. Our people are somewhat slow in taking hold of it, but all the prospects are that there will be a large attendance."

By the way, continued Dr. Jones, there is one very important point to which public attention should be particularly called, and that is the necessity for providing for the visitors who will attend.
A Bureau of Information has already been started, under charge of Messrs.
Samuel H. Bowman and W. L. Waring, at No. 10 South Ninth street. These gentlemen have been making up this bureau for several weeks, but as yet have received but little encouragement. It is absolutely necessary that arrangements should be perfected by which strangers may be directed where the rooms and lodgings are without any difficulty, in order that the crowds may be comfortably taken care of. What is desired is that everyone in the city who is willing to confer his board and lodging to visitors to the Exposition will give their names and addresses to these gentlemen, so that they may be placed in a book, and properly recorded.

Mr. Bowman was then seen at his place of business on Main street, and asked what progress had been made in getting up his bureau. He replied that he had prepared a number of blank containing spaces for the names of the parties proposing to take lodgers, the location of their houses, prices of single meal, for table board per day, for meals and lodgings per day, per week, and per month, the total number that can be accommodated, and all information necessary to be given. About 5,000 of these blanks have been sent out, he said, but only about twenty-five or thirty answers received. They can be obtained from him at 518 East Main, from Mr. Waring at 515 East Main, and at No. 10 South Ninth street.

This is a very important matter, and one on which the success of the Exposition largely depends. Atlanta's last Exposition was somewhat of a failure on account of a neglect of just such precautions, and it would never do to permit our Virginia Exposition to differ from any such cause. Parties who propose taking lodgers should, therefore, give in their names to Messrs. Bowman and Waring at once.

LOCAL OPTICISTS IN SESSION.

Only About 3,000 Petitioners for an Election So Far Reported.

About twenty-five gentlemen met last night in the hall of Paul Kearney Post, G. A. R., on Capitol street, and with them were a number of colored men. All of them were the representative of the in movement to have a local option election here this summer. The weather was warm, and all the windows and doors were open. The reporter about 10 o'clock quietly walked up the steps and looked in at the open door. The presiding officer, Mr. Geo. W. Hawkhurst, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars, recognized the reporter's bow, and instantly appointed a polite gentleman as temporary sergeant-at-arms to inquire the reporter's business. This duty was politely performed, and the reporter having told his business, was asked by another gentleman, who did not know he was addressing a reporter, to come in and assist.

In conversation it was learned that less than 3,000 names had been so far reported as signed to the petition for the election. It requires 3,417, one-fourth of the vote cast at the general election last November. It is claimed that many lists have not been brought in for the reason that canvassers are ambitious to exceed each other in the work. Again it is not the wish of the temperance people to go before the people with a list of signers to a call less than 1,000 more than the number actually required.

Calls were made for additional canvassers and several responded.

Another meeting will be held at the same place next Friday night.

Deed of Assignment.

A deed of assignment was recorded yesterday in the Chancery Court from S.
J. Davis to Allen G. Collins, trustee.

The deed conveys all the stock of wall paper, shades, curtain poles, oil cloths, awning goods, fixtures, etc., at No. 28 North Ninth street, and closes in action for the benefit of his creditors.

The preferred creditors are: First National bank, $1,000; Citizens' bank, $55.
The second-class creditors are: W. E.
Arnold & Co., $41.10; John C. Wemple Company, $65.65; J. A. Lindsay & Co., $65.99; A. A. Yerkes & Co., $156.95; James, Briggs & Hatzel, $82.97; Howell Brothers, $59.92; New York Wall Paper Company, $108.80; Cary Brothers & Grovemeyer, $127.63; Janeway & Car-pendier, $238.03; William Campbell & Co., $185.80; and a number of open accounts of small amounts.

Total Liabilities, $3,030.

The Hanover Street Case Settled.

Judge Redd of Hanover held a short session of the Henrico County Court yesterday, and made final disposition of the Hanover street case. It appearing that the objection to the street grew out of a question of drainage, it was ordered that a drain should be put in near the boulevard.

An order was entered in the Henrico County Court yesterday directing the construction of this pike through the valley of Almond creek to the Williamsburg avenue.
